

Peer Review Worksheet

Name of author: _____ Name of reviewer: _____

Author: list your most pressing concerns about your paper here:

Reviewer: Answer the following questions:

1. Based on the introduction and the thesis only, what do you think the main points of the paper will be? Do you have any questions about the introduction? Any suggestions for the thesis?
2. Read each paragraph's topic sentence. Does each topic sentence present a new idea/claim that relates to the thesis in some way? Make recommendations for which ones need improvement here.
3. Now read the whole paper. Revisit question 1; having read the whole paper, what were the main points? Are these similar or different from what you thought when you read the introduction? Does the whole paper reflect the thesis and vice versa?

4. Which paragraph presented the strongest evidence and analysis? Why? How do the body paragraphs integrate source information as evidence?

5. Address the author's concerns listed at the top of the page here. List specific ways they can improve upon them, if necessary.

6. List 2-3 things that this paper does well. List 1-2 things it could improve on.

Author Reflection: Based on the feedback given, do you still have questions or concerns about your paper? What do you plan to work on in your revision?
