

2021 LMU INTERFAITH COURSE DEVELOPMENT GRANT

Proposals are now being solicited for the LMU Interfaith Course Development Grant. The Interfaith Course Development Grant is available to continuing full-time faculty (tenured, tenure-track, and term faculty). This Summer Grant is meant to expand the LMU course offerings in the area of interfaith relations. The grant is for $5,000 and may be split between two faculty members. The grant recipient(s) will teach a course that has been developed for the Fall 2021 or Spring 2022 semester, and then regularly after that if possible.”

Please follow the grant application procedures in this document, paying careful attention to key dates. Contact our office prior to the deadline date if you cannot download the application. Applications that are incomplete, late, or do not conform to the guidelines and instructions will not be accepted or considered by the BCLA Interfaith Committee.

To submit your application, please contact Amber Astredo, Faculty Affairs (OFD@lmu.edu) for access to BOX submission folder (Interfaith Course Development Grant 2020).

All application materials (including the grant condition form with chair’s signature) must be uploaded to BOX by 5:00 PM on February 9, 2021. Proposals must include the following to be considered complete.
