UNIVERSITY COMPREHENSIVE BENEFITS COMMITTEE (UCBC)

Objectives: LMU recognizes the importance and value of input by members of the campus community when considering the significant changes to our benefits programs. To facilitate such collaboration, the University, in partnership with the Faculty Senate, has set forth a University Comprehensive Benefits Committee. The Committee convenes on an ad hoc basis to review, solicit feedback from the broader community and assist with communication about major changes to our benefits programs.

Members: Twelve members at large appointed by the President. Representatives will include: the Vice President for Business and Finance and Controller; Academic Affairs appointee; Dean Representative; President of the Staff Senate; an Administrative Representative from Loyola Law School; two faculty representatives (one faculty representative from Loyola Law School and one from Westchester campus); one staff member from Student Affairs and one staff member from University Relations.

Terms of Office: Faculty and staff serve on the committee for three years.

Chairs: The committee is co-chaired by the President of the Faculty Senate and the Vice President for Human Resources.

COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES

Objectives: The Committee on Committees is a standing committee of the Faculty Senate and reports to the Faculty Senate. Its charge is to recommend faculty membership for all University Standing and Special Committees to the Senate Executive. The committee also oversees the collection and maintenance of all bylaws and statutes of committees having a majority of faculty membership. The committee approves all bylaws for newly constituted committees and revisions in bylaws of all existing University Standing and Special Committees having a majority of faculty members and makes recommendations to the Faculty Senate for approval of all new and/or revisions to bylaws of committees having a majority faculty membership. The committee compiles the year-end reports of all University Standing and Special and Faculty Senate Committees for distribution to the faculty and administration.

Members: One full-time faculty member from each school and college and one professional librarian. Members are appointed after the annual election of the Senate membership by the newly constituted Senate Executive.

Terms of Office: Each faculty member serves a three-year term. Members may serve two consecutive terms before terming out.

Chair: The faculty chair shall be appointed from among the faculty membership by the Faculty Senate Executive Committee.
