Fulbright Study/Research Brightspace Course Information

Applicants for study awards typically pursue a one-year master's or first year of a PhD abroad. The study/research awards are available in approximately 140 countries.

Applicants for research awards (including creative arts) design their own projects and will typically work with advisers at foreign universities or other institutes of higher education.

To qualify for LMU's institutional endorsement, S/R applicants will complete a self-paced online course by August 31. This free course will provide detailed guidance on how to craft a competitive application.

Additionally, ONIF requires applicants attend at least ONE of six essay workshops. All workshops will be virtual on Zoom.

17. Host Country: *

E.g., Vietnam. If you are considering more than one country/award, you may list up to three.

18. In no more than 500 words, please outline your proposed project or prospective graduate study program. *

This will be a rough version of your Statement of Grant Purpose. It outlines the Who, What, When, Where, Why, and How of what you are proposing for your Fulbright year. If you are pursuing a research project, developing a strong, feasible and compelling project is the most important aspect of a successful Fulbright application. If you are proposing to complete a graduate degree program, focus on demonstrating the reasons for pursuing the proposed graduate study at a particular institution in the host country.

- 19. Study Applicant ONLY: Upload your graduate programs assessment form. Upload one for each graduate program abroad you are considering, max 3. Download the form here.

Files submitted:

- 20. List up to three potential affiliations abroad. * Review affiliation instructions. Include their full name(s), email address(es), and a brief summary of your correspondence, if applicable.

ONIF Waiver

1. I hereby waive my right to view faculty and institutional letters of recommendation or endorsement that are written for the purpose of the Fulbright U.S. Student Program application. While copies of these letters may be provided to me by the authors, I understand this is done as a courtesy and does not affect this waiver.
 2. As required under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, commonly known as FERPA, I hereby give permission for my grade point average (GPA), transcripts, and individual course grades to be used and discussed as a part of faculty and institutional letters of recommendation, endorsements, and/or sent with the completed application.
 3. By applying through Loyola Marymount University (LMU), I agree to hold myself to a professional standard. This includes, but is not limited to adhering to deadlines, responding to messages (via Brightspace, email, phone, etc.) in a timely manner, being prepared for and following through with appointments, using professional language in all correspondence, and incorporating feedback given by LMU faculty and staff. LMU will issue warnings for any unprofessional conduct. I understand that LMU reserves the right to deny or withdraw an institutional endorsement if consistent lack of professionalism takes place, or if a singular incident is particularly egregious.
 4. I grant permission for Loyola Marymount University to use my biographical information, as well as any photos I approve, to publicize my nomination and/or receipt of this scholarship(s) or fellowship(s). I also consent to have a copy of my application and all supporting materials retained indefinitely by the Office of National & International Fellowships (ONIF) or its successor and understand that it may be made available to future LMU applicants as an example for them to review as they prepare their own applications.
 5. I attest that all of the information I include in my application, including listings of activities and awards, research undertaken or planned, and personal statements or other essays, are my own work and are accurate and honest to the best of my knowledge.
29. By typing your name below, you are confirming that you have read and will adhere to the the waiver items above. *
