Teaching/Language Study Abroad

Princeton in Africa Fellowship- Deadline: October. Princeton in Africa matches talented and passionate college graduates with organizations working across Africa for yearlong service placements. There is a $50 application fee and a $150 placement fee. Fellows are expected to cover their own airfare to/from the placement country, health insurance (typically available through your parents’ plan), and visa application fees.

TaLK Program (Teach and Learn in Korea Program)- Deadline: November. The TaLK Program (Teach and Learn in Korea Program) is designed by the South Korean Government to award current undergraduates and recent University graduates with the opportunity to contribute their English speaking abilities and transition this ability into the skill of becoming an international English teacher.

Princeton in Asia (PiA) Fellowships- Deadline: November. PiA sponsors over 150 fellowships and internships in 20 countries and is the oldest and largest organization of its kind, unique in its scope, size, century-long expertise and emphasis on service. There is a $60 application fee & $550 placement fee and medical insurance & air fare are not included.

JET Program USA- Deadline: November. The JET Program is a competitive employment opportunity that allows young professionals to live and work in cities, towns, and villages throughout Japan.

The Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program- Deadline: November. The Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program offers fully-funded summer language institutes for U.S. university students. Graduating seniors and current graduate students are eligible to apply. Last summer, an LMU student studied Hindi in India.

The Middle East and North Africa Regional (MENAR) Fellowship Program- Deadline: December 15. A one-year post-graduation fellowships for top graduates of American colleges at leading organizations in the Middle East and North Africa. There is a $25 application fee. Fellows are expected to cover their own airfare to/from the placement country, health insurance (typically available through your parents’ plan), and visa application fees.

Austrian Federal Ministry of Education (BMB) Foreign Language Teaching Assistantship Program- Deadline: January. Each year, more than 140 college graduates from the United States teach in Austria.

Teaching Assistant Program in France (TAPIF)- Deadline: January. The Teaching Assistant Program in France (TAPIF) is a joint initiative of the French Ministry of Education, the Centre international d'études pédagogiques (CIEP) and the Cultural Services of the French Embassy.

CBC English Teaching Assistant in Madrid- Deadline: January. The UCETAM program offers 18 or 26 hour English Language Assistant positions at UCETAM-affiliated schools located within the Community of Madrid. Integrated within the English Language Assistant’s schedule is one hour exclusively for planning & organization time.
Anatolia College Fellowships in Greece- Deadline: January. Anatolia College in Thessaloniki, Greece, offers unique Fellowship opportunities for recent college graduates during the academic year – especially those interested in applying their liberal arts, human and international relations skills in an educational setting. From teaching, mentoring, counselling, to doing institutional research, they are seeking recent college graduates from a wide range of backgrounds. All fellows are provided housing on campus on a hillside above Thessaloniki. Fellowships include full room and board, plus up to 1000 Euros for one round trip air economy ticket to/from Greece, and a monthly stipend of €400 (approximately $500 USD). Please email Georgia Proestopoulous, gpro@anatolia.edu.gr with any questions.

English Opens Doors Program in Chile- Deadline: March. The National Volunteer Center recruits native and near-native English speakers to work as teaching assistants in Chilean classrooms, specifically to improve students’ listening and speaking skills. Volunteers also assist with other initiatives of the English Opens Doors Program, such as debates and English Camps. Volunteers teach and encourage the study of English while living with Chilean host families and interacting with members of the local community.

North American Language and Culture Assistants in Spain. Deadline: April (Application opens in January). The language assistants will receive a monthly stipend of 700 euros, exempt from taxation, and full medical insurance. Upon arrival in Spain, they will be offered an orientation course. Travel costs to and from the country of origin will be the responsibility of the assistant.

China Educational Association of International Exchange (CEAIE) Program- Deadline: May. A chance for teachers to live and work in China for twelve months. The aim of the program is to promote language exchange and mutual understanding among young people at home and abroad, and to improve foreign language education in Chinese schools. Candidates majoring in Education and English language study or with teaching experience will be highly competitive. There is a preference for candidates who have traveled overseas, and a high preference for those with extensive teaching experience. Program benefits include: TEFL Certification, Round-trip flight from U.S. to China, International work experience, Classroom experience, Free housing, and One month of vacation to travel.

*For official info on the above opportunities (which supersedes any info provided here), please visit their websites.

Study/Interning/Research Abroad

Gates Cambridge Scholarship- Campus Deadline: August 31. Gates Cambridge Scholarships are prestigious, highly competitive full-cost scholarships awarded to outstanding applicants from countries outside the UK to pursue a full-time postgraduate degree in any subject available at the University of Cambridge.
Marshall Scholarships - Campus Deadline: August 31. Marshall Scholarships finance young Americans of high ability to study for a graduate degree in the United Kingdom. Up to forty Scholars are selected each year to study at graduate level at an UK institution in any field of study. Applicants must be U.S. citizens with a minimum 3.7 cumulative GPA.

The George J. Mitchell Scholarship - Campus Deadline: August 31. The George J. Mitchell Scholarship is designed to introduce and connect upcoming generations of future American leaders to the island of Ireland, while recognizing and fostering scholarship, leadership, and a commitment to community and public service. Up to twelve Mitchell Scholars between the ages of 18 and 30 are chosen annually for one academic year of postgraduate study in any discipline offered by institutions of higher learning in Ireland. Applicants must be U.S. citizens.

Rhodes Scholarships - Campus Deadline: August 31. The Rhodes Scholarships are postgraduate awards supporting outstanding all-round students at the University of Oxford, and providing transformative opportunities for exceptional individuals. Applicants must also be at least 18 but not yet 24 years of age (i.e., the applicant must still be 23 on October 1 in the year of application).

Schwarzman Scholars - Campus Deadline: August 31. The Schwarzman Scholars Program gives the world's best and brightest students the opportunity to develop their leadership skills through a one-year Master's Degree at Tsinghua University in Beijing- one of China's most prestigious universities. Taught in English, Scholars choose a concentration in Business & Economics, Public Policy, or International Affairs.

Davies-Jackson Scholarship - Campus Deadline: September 1. This scholarship offers first generation students the opportunity to study at St. John's College, Cambridge. Students can pursue either an Affiliated BA or an MPhil. Scholarship recipients will have the opportunity to immerse themselves in the rich educational environment of St. John's, which was founded in the 16th century, by reading in one of the following subjects: Archaeology; Classics; Economics; Education; English; Geography; History; History of Art; History and Modern Languages; History and Politics; Human, Social, and Political Sciences; Mathematics; Modern and Medieval Languages; Music; Philosophy; or Psychological and Behavioral Sciences. Open to graduating seniors with 3.7 or higher overall GPA. Only available to first generation college students.

The Alexander von Humboldt Foundation's German Chancellor Fellowship - Deadline: September. A fully-funded for young leaders to spend a year in Germany working on a project of their choice. During their stay in Germany, the German Chancellor Fellows usually pursue research-based, self-developed projects in the areas such as politics, public administration and business as well as society and culture.

Princeton in Africa Fellowship - Deadline: October. Princeton in Africa matches talented and passionate college graduates with organizations working across Africa for yearlong service placements. There is a $50 application fee and a $150 placement fee. Fellows are expected to cover their own airfare to/from the placement country, health insurance (typically available through your parents' plan), and visa application fees.
American-Scandinavian Foundation (ASF) Fellowships- Deadline: November. The American-Scandinavian Foundation (ASF) offers fellowships (up to $23,000) and grants (up to $5,000) to individuals to pursue research, study or creative arts projects in one or more Scandinavian country for up to one year.

Princeton in Latin America- Deadline: November. PiLA matches partner organizations engaged in socially responsible development projects in Latin America and the Caribbean with highly qualified and motivated recent college graduates who are interested in year-long service fellowships throughout the region. There is a $100 application fee & $500 placement fee and medical insurance & air fare are not included. Applicants who currently are Pell Grant recipients or federal financial aid recipients may submit a copy of their current award letter to be evaluated for possible fee reductions.

Princeton in Asia (PiA) Fellowships- Deadline: November. PiA sponsors over 150 fellowships and internships in 20 countries and is the oldest and largest organization of its kind, unique in its scope, size, century-long expertise and emphasis on service. There is a $60 application fee & $550 placement fee and medical insurance & air fare are not included.

Yenching Scholars Program- Deadline: November. The Yenching Academy of Peking University offers a Master's degree in China Studies. This specially designed, English-taught program aims to push the study of China beyond the boundaries of traditionally defined Humanities and Social Sciences disciplines. Contact ONIF for assistance with your application.

Alfa Fellowship Program- Deadline: December. A distinguished international initiative that each year offers up to 18 accomplished young Americans, Britons, and Germans the opportunity to complete a high-level professional development program in Russia. Over the course of the program, Fellows complete work placements at leading institutions, attend professional seminars, and receive intensive language training. The Fellowship provides a monthly stipend, accommodation, insurance, all program-related travel costs, language training in Russia, and private tutoring in the U.S., U.K., or Germany.

The Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange for Young Professionals- Deadline: December. The Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange for Young Professionals (CBYX) is a fellowship funded by the German Bundestag and U.S. Congress, that annually provides 75 American and 75 German young professionals the opportunity to spend one year in each others' countries, studying, interning, and living with hosts on a cultural immersion program. Open to U.S. citizens between 18-24 y/o.

The Middle East and North Africa Regional (MENAR) Fellowship Program- Deadline: December. A one-year post-graduation fellowships for top graduates of American colleges at leading organizations in the Middle East and North Africa. There is a $25 application fee. Fellows are expected to cover their own airfare to/from the placement country, health insurance (typically available through your parents' plan), and visa application fees.

William J. Clinton Fellowship for Service in India - Deadline: January. The Fellowship pairs a select number of highly skilled young professionals with leading NGOs and social enterprises in India in order to accelerate impact and create effective projects that are replicable, scalable, and sustainable.
Anatolia College Fellowships in Greece- Deadline: January. Anatolia College in Thessaloniki, Greece, offers unique Fellowship opportunities for recent college graduates during the academic year – especially those interested in applying their liberal arts, human and international relations skills in an educational setting. From teaching, mentoring, counselling, to doing institutional research, they are seeking recent college graduates from a wide range of backgrounds. All fellows are provided housing on campus on a hillside above Thessaloniki. Fellowships include full room and board, plus up to 1000 Euros for one round trip air economy ticket to/from Greece, and a monthly stipend of €400 (approximately $500 USD). Please email Georgia Proestopoulous, gpro@anatolia.edu.gr with any questions.

Kobe College Corp-Japan Education Exchange (KCC-JEE) Graduate Fellowship- Deadline: March. Provides up to $30,000 for graduate students to study/research in Japan.

The Endeavour Postgraduate Scholarship- Deadline: June. The Endeavour Postgraduate Scholarship provides financial support for international students for up to 4 years to undertake a postgraduate qualification at a Masters or PhD level either by coursework or research in any field of study in Australia.

For official info on the above opportunities (which supersedes any info provided here), please visit their websites.