

It is useful for each of the works in progress files to have a short note that describes the status of the project (e.g., in a first paragraph) where in the completion process the piece is. e.g., "This piece has been submitted for publication to..." or "This is a first draft of an article that I hope to submit for publication by the end of 2023."

Please delete this file after reading. Do not upload this file with your dossier.